

CHARLESTON, W. VA.
GAZETTE

M. 66,414
S. 104,948

NOV 2 1965

WASHINGTON ROUNDUP

ON THEIR recent visit here, West Virginia's county Democratic chairmen heard 14 Democratic senators praise Randolph at a luncheon.

Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R. I., said he couldn't remember whether his name was Jennings Randolph or Randolph Jennings when he first came to the Senate. Pastore finally solved the problem by calling Randolph by his initials, J. R.

U. S. MILITARY efforts are damaging the North Vietnamese but there has been no evident change in their political attitude, Sen. Byrd commented after a CIA briefing.

"I am convinced that our efforts in South Viet Nam are proving to be more and more effective in bringing about a greater stability . . . and are resulting in better morale among the peasants," he said.